MRS. ANNA ALLPRESS

Mrs. Anna Allpress, age 62, passed away at the Waukesha Memorial hospital, Thursday, December 16th, following a long illness. Anna Dresdow, daughter of the late William and Minnie Dresdow, was born at Saylesville November 6, 1886. She moved to Eagle with her parents when a young girl and it was here she received her early education. On January 7, 1910 she was married to James Allpress of Eagle and the young couple located on their present farm near Eagle, where they have lived continuously for 38 years.

Being a rheumatic sufferer for many years and crippled badly from rheumatism, she was forced to live a retiring life. She loved her home and family and in spite of pain, kept up her home work almost to the very last.

Surviving are her husband, James; one son, Raymond; two sisters, Mrs. James Fardy and Mrs. Guy Perry of Mukwonago; three brothers, Michael Dresdow of Waukesha, Frank of Adams and Carl of Mukwonago. Funeral services were conducted from the Mealy Funeral home Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. with Rev. Beers of Waterloo and Rev. Tomlinson of No. Prairie and Eagle officiating. Mrs. Dexter Badinger and Mrs. F. Reed sang two selection with Mrs. Harold Pardee presiding at the piano. Pall bearers were Arther Stocks, Martin Rockteacher, Myron Peardon, Waldo Shearer, Joseph Mealy, and Harvey Wambold. Burial was in Oak Ridge cemetery. Her many and beautiful floral tributes gave evidence of the high esteem in which she was held in this community.

Card of Thanks

Our sincere thanks to relatives and friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved wife and mother.

James Allpress

EAGLE STATE GRADED SCHOOL

The Xmas program given by the Eagle State Graded school at the Opera Hall Friday evening was well attended and everyone there spoke in glowing terms of the excellent program. Each and every child went themselves proud. The teachers may feel well repaid for the time and effort they put forth to make this the success that it was.
