James Allpress

James Allpress, 72, a well known farmer of Eagle died suddenly, Sunday morning, Nov. 10. Although he had not been in the best of health his death was very unexpected and was a great shock to all his friends. He leaves to survive him one son Raymond, and a daughter-in-law, Camille. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 3 p. m. at the Mealy Funeral home with the Rev. Samuel Beers and the Rev. Robert Kuhn officiating. Pallbearers were Ed Fardy, Ralph Arndt, Austin Bowey, Claude Peardon, Wm. Lean and Harvey Wambold. Kenneth Williams sang and played the piano. Burial was in the family lot in Oak Ridge Cemetery.
