

Walter E. Bothe

Services for Walter E. Bothe, 67, a former food manufacturer and merchandising consultant, will be held at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Flinspack and Kurth funeral home, Bloomington, Ill. Mr. Bothe, who lived at the Astor hotel, died of cancer Sunday at Lutheran hospital. He had been merchandising consultant for the last five years to companies selling products through supermarkets.

Mr. Bothe

He formerly owned the Helen Harrison Candy Manufacturing Co. of Chicago and later the Walter E. Bothe Co., manufacturer of food specialties, Bloomington, Ill.

From 1945 to 1965, Mr. Bothe owned the Red Brae estate, Eagle, Wis., where he raised Belgian horses and Guernsey cattle. He was a member of the Lake Shore club, Chicago, where he served on the board of directors.

Mr. Bothe is survived by his wife, C. Pauline; a brother, Dr. Russell T., Aurora, Ill., and a sister, Mrs. Helen Marquardt, Bloomington, Ill.

The body is at the Feerick funeral home, 2025 E. Capitol dr., Shorewood. Burial will be in Bloomington, Ill.