

Obit- Bracker, Frank W.
12-20-1919 - 3-2-05

Frank W. Bracker

3-2-05

Frank W. "Frankie" Bracker, 85, Eagle, died Thursday, Feb. 24 at his home.

He was born Dec. 20, 1919 in Elkhorn to John and Martha (nee Rubach) Bracker. June 9, 1949, he married Pearl (nee Radtke) in Elkhorn. He was a lifelong dairy farmer in Elkhorn, Mukwonago and Eagle areas. He was a past member of A.M.P.I., member of Corriadales Association. Frankie was well known for showing his sheep at state, county and other fairs. He loved farming and was well known also for his avid Euchre card game skills.

Survivors include his wife Pearl, daughter Fran (Allan) Roller, Eagle; stepchildren, Richard (Mary) Radtke, Elkhorn; Marilyn (David) Schlei, Waukesha and Joan Dougherty, New Berlin; 13 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers and one sister.

Visitation and funeral services were Feb. 28 at Schmidt & Bartelt Van Valin Funeral and Cremation Service, Mukwonago. Rev. Bill Busch from Eagle United Methodist Church, officiated. Burial was at St. Olivet Cemetery, Elkhorn.