James L. Chapman

EAGLE - James L. Chapman, 75, died Saturday, Feb. 1, 2003, at Waukesha Memorial Hospital from complications after open heart surgery. He was born Jan. 27, 1928, on the family farm in the town of Troy to Frank and Blanche (Farnham) Chapman.

Jim had been employed at Klix Dairy, Tent Tube in East Troy, had been a live stock trucker from 1957 to 1998 and also had operated the Eagle Variety Store on Main Street in Eagle for 22 years. He enjoyed attending the Waukesha County Fair and his greatest love was farming.

He is survived by his wife, Kathleen (nee Smart), of 55 years. He is also survived by his children, Michael J. (Linda) of Hartland, Cheryl Chapman of Eagle and Cynthia (William) Kaether of McFarland; six grandchildren, Julie, Heather, Sarah, David, Jeffrey and Brett; two great-grandchildren, Molly and Haley; a brother, Spencer (Barbara) of Troy Center; sisters, Fay Chapman of Loveland, Colo., Shirley (Douglas) Lenicheck of Wauwatosa and Nancy (Melvin) Dey of Burlington; and nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. He is preceded in death by his brother, Wallace.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Feb. 5, 2003, at the Eagle United Methodist Church, 305 E. Main St. in Eagle. The Rev. Bill Busch will officiate with burial at Little Prairie Cemetery. Visitation will be held from 3 p.m., until 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 4, 2003, at Mealy's Funeral Home, 103 Eagle Street, in Eagle.

Memorials to the Eagle United Methodist Church are appreciated.

Mealy's Funeral Home in Eagle is serving the family, 594-2442.
