HARTLAND (Eagle)

Born

Michael J. Chapman

Oct. 24, 1947 – Oct. 12, 2006

Michael J. Chapman of Hartland passed away Thursday, Oct. 12, 2006, following a courageous battle with cancer at age 58.

Mike graduated from Mukwonago High School. After obtaining an accounting degree, he established CVS Accounting in Hartland. He was the town of Merton treasurer for the past 17 years and member and treasurer for the Hartland Athletic Advancement Association, or HAAA, for more than 30 years. Mike loved life. An avid sportsman, he enjoyed hunting, fishing, bowling, horseshoes, baseball, golf and spending time with friends and family, especially his granddaughters, Molly and Haley.

He is survived by his wife of 36 years, Linda (nee Dobrich); his daughters, Julie (Joe) Henke and Heather (Curt) Gundrum, his granddaughters, Molly Henke and Haley Henke; and his mother, Kathleen Chapman. He is further survived by his sisters, Cheryl Chapman and Cindy (Bill) Kaether, and nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

A gathering for family and friends will be held from 4 p.m. until a 7 p.m. memorial service Monday, Oct. 16, at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, W299-N5782 Highway E, Hartland.

Evert-Luko Funeral Home of Hartland, 367-2156, is assisting the family.
