

Mukwonago Chief

obit. Dailey, Robert W.
March 1, 1935 - March 22, 2008

Robert W.
Dailey
Sr.

Robert W. Dailey Sr. of Mukwonago passed away on March 22, 2008 at Waukesha Memorial Hospital. He was 73 years old.

Robert was born March 1, 1935 in Greenfield, the son of Lowell and Doretta (nee Randall) Dailey. He attended Mukwonago High School. On April 23, 1960, he married Dorothy Houk at St. Theresa's Catholic Church in Eagle. Robert worked at Kearney & Trecker in Milwaukee for 27 years, and in 2000, he retired from A.B. & B. Robotics in New Berlin. He was a member of St. James Catholic Church in Mukwonago, and a U.S. Navy Veteran. Robert loved to play cards, hunt and fish, and also enjoyed playing Santa Claus around the Mukwonago area.

Survivors include his wife Dorothy, his children Robin Richard of Mukwonago, Robert Jr. (Teresa) Dailey of Glen Flora, Brenda Mules of Glendale, Ariz., and Marie (Terry) Kortman of Sheboygan; his grandchildren Justin Richard, Angela Burki, Christina (Dustin) Rutgers, Stefanie Dailey, Robert W. Dailey III, Miranda (Freddie) Gabow and Michael Hamp; two great-granddaughters Hailey Richard and Alexis Gabow; a brother William (Theresa) Dailey of Mukwonago, five sisters Virginian Rath of Mukwonago, Iris Rath of Mukwonago, Judy (Larry) Gaffner of Queen Creek, Ariz., Vernie Campbell of Waukesha and Linda (Al) Galkowski of Mukwonago; many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers Jack, Doug and Larry Dailey, a sister Dawn Schleicher and a grandson Ryan Richard.

A memorial mass was held March 27 at St. James Catholic Church, 830 County Road NN East, Mukwonago. Fr. Francis Malloy officiated. In lieu of flowers, memorials to the American Lung Association would be appreciated.

Schmidt & Bartelt - Van Valin Funeral and Cremation Services, (262) 363-7126, Mukwonago served the family. For any other information, please call or visit online at www.schmidtandbartelt.com.