

Freeman

Obit. - Day, John <sup>Fl.</sup>
1911 - May 7, 1995

John A. Day

EAGLE — John A. Day died Sunday, May 7, 1995, at the age of 84. He was born in Milwaukee and was a resident of Eagle for most of his life.

He was a founding member of the Wisconsin Region Antique Automobile Club and a member of the Pierce Arrow Society, gaining and giving pleasure by driving his cars and fire engine in the July 4 "Day in Old Milwaukee" Circus and Eagle-Kettle Moraine parades and other events. He was actively involved with the Eagleville School Board and in establishing the Eagle Medical Center and in many other community activities. He was a founding member and past commodore of the Eagle Lake Yacht Club.

He attended Carroll College and joined Rexnord in 1934. He retired in 1975 having spent most of his career in production, control, and contract planning at Rexnord and Envirex.

He was the beloved husband of Thomasina "Rae" for 58 years; father of Tom, Robert (Karen), Janet (Jeff) Prokop of Eagle, John (Judy) of Hong Kong, Barbara Pinekenstein of Racine and James (Josef) of San Francisco; grandfather of Tod, Dianne (Rob) Lueck, Robert (Lisa), Mathew (Michelle), Christopher, Kristine, Betsy, Jacob and Jordan; great-grandfather of Nathan, Leah and Stephanie, and brother of Tom (Miriam) of Louisville, Gordon (Gerry) of Fort Atkinson, and Bill (Ky) of Occidental, Calif.

Services for family and friends will be at Forest Home Cemetery on Friday, May 12, at 10:30 a.m. In lieu of flower, memorials to the Eagle Library, Eagle Volunteer Rescue Squad or a charity of donor's choice would be appreciated.

(The Freeman — May 9, 1995)