

Nov. 30, 1940 Jan. 14, 1987

Obituaries

LANCE K. FANSHAW

Lance K. Fanshaw, Ed.D., age 47, of Sprague Rd., Eagle, died Thursday, January 14, at Waukesha Memorial Hospital. He was born November 30, 1940, at Waupun. In 1959 he graduated from Waupun High School; in 1962 he graduated from Dodge County Teachers College. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater; he received his doctorate from Vanderbilt University at Nashville, Tennessee. He started teaching at the Eagle State Graded School in 1962; he taught 5th grade at Prairie View School in North Prairie from 1963 to 1966. He again joined the Eagle State Graded School in 1966 as principal and teacher, and then the Eagle State Graded School joined the Palmyra School District. He moved from principal to director of Elementary Education to District Administrator, which title he held until his death. He was a member of the American Association of School Administrators, the Wisconsin Association of School District Administrators, Phi Delta Kappa, Association of Curriculum Supervision Development, University of Wisconsin-Whitewater and Vanderbilt Alumni. He was past Prairie View PTO president, president and board member of the Waukesha County Education Association and president of the Alice Baker Memorial Public Library, Eagle. He was also a member and board director of the Milwaukee Capital City and Corsa Corvair Clubs and the AMC Rambler Club. He was also a board member of the St. John Chrysostom Episcopal Church in Delafield. He was on numerous educational committees all over the state.

He is survived by his wife, Donna (Kemmel), whom he married in Brownsville, August 17, 1963; other survivors include one son, Scott; one daughter, Kris; one brother, Richard (Ruth) Fanshaw of Madison; one sister, Mrs. Adonna (Roy) Grade of Holmen; nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, Luvin and Marie (Wedge) Fanshaw and one sister, Judith Lou Fanshaw.

Funeral services were Monday, January 18, at 10 a.m. at St. John Chrysostom Episcopal Church in Delafield. Father Robert Rademaker officiated. Burial was in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Eagle. A memorial service followed at 4 p.m. Monday at the Palmyra-Eagle High School. Friends called Sunday from 3-8 p.m. at the Mealy Funeral Home in Eagle. Memorials may be made to the Lance Fanshaw Scholarship Fund.