Chesley Griffin

Chesley Griffin, an old resident of the county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roy Jackson, of Tess Corners, on Friday, March 22. He was the son of Daniel and Eliza (Jones) Griffin and was born at Jonesville, Jan. 15, 1855. He was married in 1875 to Miss Mary Onyon of Eagle and two children blessed the union, both of whom are still living: Harry of Appleton, Wis., and Mrs. Ruby Jackson of Tess Corners. At the latter's home Mr. and Mrs. Griffin had been living, that the daughter might help in caring for the invalid mother. None can realize how the bereaved widow will miss her life companion, for they were still "sweethearts" as in the long ago. Mr. Griffin leaves also four sisters: Mrs. William West, North Prairie; Mrs. Estelle Hull, Missouri; Mrs. Charles Rose and Mrs. Clara Vandewalker, Big Bend. He has left the trials, cares and pleasures of this life and is resting where we will all soon join him a little farther on. * * *
