Obit- Mackold, Elizabeth May 25, 1868 -

Elizabeth Mackold

Elizabeth Thurloff. daughter of Christian and Freda Thurloff, was born in Milwaukee May 25, 1868. When she was about thirteen years old the family moved to the present Thurloff farm at Palestine. She remained in Milwaukee until she had finished school and confirmation in the German Lutheran Church.

She was married January 29, 1887 te Edward L. Mackold. They lived on the Gesa farm for eleven years as. tenants and then purchased it. In the year of 1918 they bought their present home in the village of Eagle and lived there for five years when they returned to the farm. In 1927 they again returned to their home in the village after selling the farm to Miss Gillette.

Mrs. Mackold was a good neighbor and friend. She loved flowers and needlework which she shared and exchanged with everyone. Poor health for over a year had confined her to her home but the last few months she had been much improved.

Sunday morning while preparing breakfast she suffered a severe stroke and immediately passed away. She leaves to mourn her death her husband, four children, Mrs. Lavinda Gates, Palmyra, Mrs. Laura Silvernail, Genesee, Mrs. Henrietta Wambold, Eagle, and one son Henry of Sullivan; eleven grandchildren and five great grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Kethelhohn, Afton, and Herman Mueller, Eagle, three brothers, Frank and Edward of Eagle and Alfred of Oconomowoc, also a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Mealy funeral home, Rev. Beers and Grabill officiating. Interment was in the family lot at Oak Ridge cemetery. Grandsonsa and nephew served as pall bearers.
