Judson L. Mayhew

EAGLE - Judson L. Mayhew, 67, of Eagle, died Sunday, Jan. 19, 2003, at Waukesha Memorial Hospital. He was born May 3, 1935, in Milwaukee, to LeVerne and Ursula (nee Washburn) Mayhew. On March 19, 1955, he married the former Jacqueline Jablonski.

Judson had worked as a mechanic at Doering Dodge, Mayfair Chrysler and North Avenue Plymouth. He retired from Newcor Plastic Co. in East Troy in 2000. He played second base in minor league baseball, bowled on leagues in West Allis and coached the West Allis Yankees Little League team. He loved golfing, camping and fishing, and was an avid gardener.

He will be sadly missed by his children, Cindy (Orville) Segerson of Eagle, Linda (Wade) Sutton of West Allis and Crystal Mayhew of Eagle. He was the beloved grandfather of Anthony and Cory Sutton of West Allis, Robert Mayhew, Michelle, Demisha and Shanowa Deal, all of Eagle; dear great-grandfather of Christian A. Sutton of West Allis; and loving brother of Earl (June) Mayhew of Pulaski, Richard Mayhew of Florida, Wayne (Sherry) Mayhew of Eagle, Gary Mayhew of Hartford, Sharon Dunnells of Georgia and Joyce Mayhew of West Allis. He is further survived by his brother-in-law, Kenneth Wickersham of Joliet, other relatives and friends. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Jacqueline, on Jan. 26, 1998, and his sister, Dawn Wickersham.

Friends may call from 1:30 p.m. until the 2 p.m. funeral service Friday, Jan. 24, at Forest Home Cemetery Chapel, 2405 W. Forest Home Ave., Milwaukee; the Rev. Richard Engen will officiate. Entombment will follow.
