

Mrs. John M. O'Brien

On Sunday morning Mrs. John M. O'Brien passed away at the family home in Troy Center after a long illness. Mrs. O'Brien was a daughter of the late Thomas Wall of Little Prairie and was fifty-five years of age. She was married to John M. O'Brien and resided on the farm near Troy Center until a few years ago when they moved to the village to lead a retired life. The funeral took place from the M.E. Church, Wednesday afternoon with the interment in Evergreen Cemetery. She leaves surviving her besides her husband, one son, Roy, on the homestead; and two daughters, Mrs. Albert Branfort and Mrs. Richard Jolliffe, Jr.; an aged mother and a brother at Elkhorn who have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

Eagle Quill, January 23, 1931