

WM. H. PEACOCK, JR.,
LAID TO REST

The remains of William H. Peacock, Jr., whose end came after a short illness in Spokane, Wash., on Feb. 1, were laid to rest last Wednesday afternoon in Union Ridge cemetery, Norwood Park. Rev. C. W. D. Short officiated at the service held at Donoghue's chapel.

Mr. Peacock in former years was well known on the Northwest Side, but of late years had made his home in Spokane, Wash., where he was associated with the Prudential Insurance Co. He was 34 years of age; the husband of Maude M. (nee Graham), and the father of two children, Lela Maude and Lillian Elizabeth. He was a man of splendid strength of character and broad sympathy, a devoted husband and a loving father.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Peacock, Sr., reside at 3148 Logan boulevard, this city. The following brothers, Oliver S., Walter F., Raymond J., Everett R. Peacock, and one sister, Mrs. E. E. Armstrong, survive him. Mrs. Peacock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Graham have been residents of Jefferson for over forty years.

The heartfelt sympathy of a host of former Northwest Side friends is extended the bereaved family. This publication joins in expressions of condolence.
