Leon C. Peters

Jan. 3, 1916 - Feb. 23, 2003

Leon C. Peters, 87, passed away early Sunday morning, Feb. 23, 2003, at his home in Plymouth. He was born in Edson, Alberta, Canada, on Jan. 3, 1916, a son of the late Noel and Mabel Peters.

On May 7, 1947, he married Ruth Brook in Waukesha. The couple lived in Menominee for a short time after their marriage before residing in Waukesha.

Leon was employed at the Grede Foundry in Waukesha for more than 30 years. He also was a truck driver for the Connell Trucking Co. in Genesee Depot, worked at the Kettle Moraine Boys Institute for many years and retired in 1990 from Knowles Manufacturing Co. in Glenbeulah.

Leon was a member of the Two Cylinder Club and the Wisconsin Trail Riders. He enjoyed raising horses, German shepherds and woodworking.

Survivors include his children, Roger (Laurie) Peters of Cascade, Marian (John) Bieck of Chilton, Joanne (Gordon) Goebel of Kiel, Dale (Jane) Peters of Plymouth and David Peters of New Holstein; 12 grandchildren; many great-grandchildren; one brother, Vern Peters of Arkansas; two sisters, Faye (Harvey) Treffinger of Waterford and Meryl Kelsey of Eagle; one son-in-law, Ronny Schreiber of Kiel; and many nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends. He will be dearly missed by his special canine companion, Dolly. He was preceded in death by one daughter, Joyce Schreiber; one grandson, Derek Schreiber; and three brothers, Noel, Bruce and Glenn Peters.

Family will greet friends at the visitation from 4 p.m. until 7 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 26, at the Suchon Funeral Home in Plymouth. Cremation has taken place.

A memorial fund is being established in his name.

The Suchon Funeral Home in Plymouth, (920) 893-9797, is serving the family.
