

Obit.-Amann, Julius
Sept. 3, 1955

JULIUS AMANN DIES
AT AGE 82, SATURDAY

Julius Amann, 82 years of age, died at his home in the village, Saturday evening, Sept. 3rd, at 6:30 p. m., following a long illness. He was the son of Frederick Amann and Helen Long Amann. His brother Joseph preceded him in death. He was married to Mrs. Amanda Seefelt Kilts Aug. 21, 1929. He had been treasurer of Eagle State Graded School for 15 years. A charter member of Wm. Perry Chapter of Eastern Star and a member of Robert Morris Lodge, Eagle, for 47 years and their treasurer for 45 years.

Funeral services were held at Mealy's Funeral Home on Tuesday, Sept. 6, Rev. Alvin L. Briggs officiating. Mrs. Ray Waisner was soloist and Mrs. Harold Pardee organist.

Dr. J. C. Harland, Mukwonago, conducted Masonic services at the grave. The honorary pallbearers were Charles Cruver, Jay Stead, Don Marty, James Bovee, Harold Amann and Virgil McGill. Interment was at Oak Ridge Cemetery. He is survived by his wife, Amanda, and nieces and nephews.