

James Baumgartner (1960-1984)

James Jerald Baumgartner passed away on Saturday, September 8, 1984 at the Froedert Memorial Lutheran Hospital, Milwaukee, Wisconsin at the age of 24. He had suffered a lengthy illness with kidney failure.

He was born and raised at Eagle, Wisconsin where he was presently farming with his father, which was the love of his life.

He was a 1978 graduate from Palmyra High School. He was active in 4-H and FFA, especially dairy projects. He was a member of St. Johns Lutheran Church, North Prairie, Wisconsin.

He is survived by his father, Jerald Baumgartner, Eagle, Wisconsin, his mother, Beth (Elsbeth) Baumgartner, Deerfield, Wisconsin, sister and brother-in-law Patricia and Daniel Karls, Deerfield and brother Timothy of Deerfield. Also grandparents Mr. & Mrs. Raymond Baumgartner, Sr., Athens, Wisconsin and Mr. & Mrs. Edward Mueller, Eagle, Wisconsin. Also several uncles, aunts, great uncles and aunts and many friends.

He was laid to rest on Wednesday, September 12, 1984. Funeral services were held at St. Johns Lutheran Church, North Prairie, Wisconsin with Rev. Garski officiating. Burial was in the North Prairie cemetery. The Mealy Funeral Home, Eagle, Wisconsin was in charge of arrangements.

Jim was known to many Red & White breeders in Wisconsin and he and brother Tim also made many friends at the International Shows & Sales, both at Elkhorn and Jefferson. He was very enthusiastic about his Red & Whites. He will be missed.

Memorials may be made to the Kidney Foundation.

Obit. Baumgartner, James J
