Fremont A. (Pete) Betts

MEMPHIS — Fremont A. (Pete) Betts, 72, of Memphis, Tenn., retired lieutenant colonel in the Air Force and retired from First Tennessee Bank, died of heart failure Sept. 20, 1995, at Baptist Memorial Hospital East in Memphis.

He was born Nov. 27, 1922, to T.F. and Mary (Stubbs) Betts of Eagle. He was a 1940 Waukesha High School graduate and attended UW-Madison before entering the service in 1942. He served with the 8th Air Force, 489th Squadron as a bomber pilot.

His survivors include his wife, Mary L.; daughter, Deborah Kay of Memphis; son, Thomas F. of Pasadena, Calif.; and grandchildren, John and Bennett Hilley and Hayden Betts. He is further survived by sisters Vivian (Howard) Baker of Oklahoma City and Lillian (Robert) Stanisch of Delafield and a brother, Donald (LaVern) of East Troy.

Services were held at Memorial Park Funeral Home with burial in West Tennessee Veterans Cemetery in Memphis.

(The Freeman - Sept. 28, 1995)