

Edward J. Burton

The funeral of Edward J. Burton, who died Thursday morning following several months illness, was held at the home Sunday afternoon. Rev. Amphlett of North Prairie and Rev. Petherick of Watertown officiated.

Mr. Burton had lived practically his entire life in the township and village of Eagle—as a farmer, postmaster and insurance agent. He was an advisory member of the Waukesha County Draft Board and was Second District Chairman of the Republican State Committee until the time of his illness.

Mr. Burton is survived by his wife, Lila Draper Burton, a brother, Harry Burton, former county highway commissioner and one nephew.

Besides the many friends who attended the funeral from the community and Waukesha County were: Ex-Gov. and Mrs. Julius P. Heil, Mr. Albert Ruth, Supt. of the Bureau of Probation and Parole, Mr. Delmar Heubner, Asst. Supt. of Parole Bureau, C. J. Lins, Mrs. Doris Marks and Mrs. Evelyn Stauff of Milwaukee, Wis. Fred R. Zimmerman, Sec. of State, Dr. Walter Urban, Director of Mental Hygiene of the State Welfare Dept., Dr. Green Supt. of Mendota State Hospital, Madison, Wis., Supt. and Mrs. Uthers of State Industrial School, Waukesha.

Mr. Russell Everhardt of the Sales Division, Wisconsin State Prison, Waupun, Judge and Mrs. Roscoe Luce of Elkhorn, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tice, Whitewater, Mrs. Margaret Hess and Miss Murphy, Janesville, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Sweetman, Mrs. Claude Hopkins and Mrs. Alvin Voss, East Troy, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brady of Chenoa, Illinois.

Pall bearers were Judge Allen Young, and Raleigh Thurwachter of Waukesha; Assemblyman Alfred Ludvigsen and Grover Dobberton, Hartland; Charles Cole, Dousman and Irvin Thomas of Oconomowoc.
