MARY BURTON

Mary L. Burton, 51, of County Highway N, Eagle, died Sunday, December 20, at her home.

Born June 18, 1941, at New Ulm, Minnesota, the daughter of Emil and Helen (Goblirsch) Zupfer, she married Thomas Burton on January 23, 1960, in Waukesha.

She was the operator of the Gals & Gents Too Hair Salon in North Prairie. She had been a former co-partner of the Vanity Box Salon in Waukesha.

Mrs. Burton was a charter and former member of the Eagle Lioness Club, a member of Sweet Adelines, and had been an avid bowler, horseshoe pitcher and golfer.

Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Peggy of St. Paul, Minnesota; a son, Jeff of Waukesha; three grandchildren Joshua, Ashley and Allysa; her mother, Helen (Tony) Feist of Waukesha; two sisters, JoAnn Fleischman and Lori (Greg) Hale, both of Waukesha; and brother, Thomas Zupfer of Milwaukee, and nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by daughter, Brenda.

Mass of Christian Burial was said at 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Theresa's Catholic Church in Eagle, the Rev. Russell Witon officiating. Burial was in Melendy's Prairie Cemetery, Eagle.

Friends called after 4 p.m. Tuesday at Mealy's Funeral Home in Eagle.

Memorials may be made to the Visiting Nurse Association of Waukesha or the American Cancer Society.
