Harold G. Chapman

EAGLE — Harold G. Chapman, 99, of Eagle, died Sunday, Dec. 29, 1996, at West Moreland Manor Health Care Center in Waukesha. Harold was born on Nov. 18, 1897, to Wallace and Anna (McNaughton) Chapman at Eagle, Wis.

Harold operated a service station in Eagle for many years and was an agent for Standard Oil Co. (Amoco) for 35 years. Harold was a member of the Eagle Methodist Church, a charter member of the Eagle Fire Department, a veteran of World War I, a charter member of The Eagle American Legion, The Masonic Lodge of Palmyra and The Robert Morris Chapter of Eastern Star.

Harold is survived by three daughters: Evelyn (Jack) Brenton of Sun City, Ariz., Patricia (Chester) Poetsch of Moorestown, N.J., and Ann (Paul) Trupke of Waukesha. Other survivors included seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. He also is survived by brother Archie (Helen) Chapman; sister Kathryn Ruby; sister-in-law Anna Chapman, and many nieces and nephews. Harold was preceded in death by his wife, Ruby; his parents, Wallace and Anna Chapman; brothers Willie, Clark, and Frank; sisters Christina, Eliza, and Elizabeth; and grandson Paul F. Trupke.

The funeral will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 2, 1997, at Mealy's Funeral Home in Eagle. Rev. Christal Bindrich will officiate with burial in Oak Ridge Cemetery in Eagle on Friday. Friends may call from 4 p.m. until time of services on Thursday. Memorials may be made to the Eagle United Methodist Church or The Eagle Historical Society.
