MRS. WILLIS CRAWLEY

The funeral of Mrs. Willis Crawley, who died at the family home in this village September 27th, was held from the home Saturday, Sept. 29, Rev. W. B. Petherick of the M. E. church officiating, assisted by Mrs. Oliver Juntwaite, who furnished vocal selections. Interment was in Oak Ridge cemetery.

Mrs. Crawley was a daughter of the late Edward Wilford and Charlotte Bigelow Wilford and was born in Eagle August 12th, 1865. She attended the common schools and made her girlhood home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilford, who then owned and occupied the farm now owned by Mrs. Anna L. Meredith. The grandparents moved to St. Croix county, Wisconsin and Mrs. Crawley went with them. Later she returned to Eagle and was married to Willis Crawley, who survives her.

There was a large attendance at the funeral, among them relatives from St. Croix county, James Wilford, an uncle, and daughters, Mrs. Linda Stockman and Mrs. Laura Shields, Ben Shields, Mrs. Jacobson, a daughter of Michael Crawley, Wm. C. Stephens and family of Racine. She leaves besides her husband, two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Stead and Mrs. W. C. Stephens and also three sisters in Kansas and one brother, Moody H. Bigelow, who have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.
