Susan Winne Kline

EAGLE.

Mrs. Susan Winne Kline died at the home of T. F. Rhoads Monday night from a stroke of parpalysis, following a lengthened helplessness, resulting from advanced age. Mrs. Kline was 91 years of age April 1, and had passed the major portion of her life in this vicinity, having come here in the early days with her former husband, Mr. Winne, who died many years ago. She later married William J. Kline, whom she also survived several years. She leaves a daughter and two sons.
