John J. Marty

John J. Marty, son of Junkim and Anna Leger Marty, was born in Valley Falls, Kansas on March 22, 1868.

When he was four years old his widowed mother moved to New Glarus where John lived through the years of his young manhood.

In 1890 he married Lillian Collins of New Glarus. They farmed at Dayton for ten or twelve years, later moving to New Glarus for two years. At that time they settled in the Town of Eagle, where Mr. Marty resided until his death.

He was Town Treasurer at Dayton for a number of years and acted as Town chairman and assessor in the Town of Eagle. He held the latter office until his death. For many years he was a faithful member of the masonic lodge.

He is survived by 6 children: Donald and Beatrice at home, Mrs. Fern Boyee of Eagle, Elmer of Waukesha, Robert, a private in the U. S. Army and stationed in California at present, Harold, a second-class seaman with the Navy Seabees in New Caledonia.

Also surviving are four grandchildren and four brothers and 2 sister: George Marty of Crowder, Okla.; Fred J. Marty, New Glarus, Henry M. Elmer, Monroe, Marcus M. Elmer, Madison, Mrs. Emil Voegeli, Monticello, Mrs. Anna Kracht, Eagle River.

Mrs. Marty preceded her husband in death nine months ago.

Mrs. Agnes Benedict and Mrs. Sam Blum, two sisters, also preceded him in death.

The funeral took place from the Mealy Funeral Home Monday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. and was conducted by the Robert Morris Lodge of which he had been a member for many years. Rev. Patherick of Watertown officiated at the services.

The pallbearers were Chas. Cruver, Frank Kipp, Jay Stead, Frank Hess, Glenn Luedtke, John Reining. Burial was in Oak Ridge Cemetery beside the remains of his wife.
