Shook, Cheryl Lynn

"Cookie"

2/12/61 - 12/18/11

12/20/11

Shortly after Cheri and Al were married, they moved to the town of Genesee, where they started a hobby farm known as Caper Acres with two dairy goats (Ginger and Mary Ann) and over the years the farm grew to include as many as 20 goats, four ducks, three dogs, one mini horse and a stray barn cat (Puma). During that time, Cheri and Al were 4-H leaders with the Phantom Clovers Goat project and also became Waukesha County Fair goat superintendents. Through her caring and loving nature for all living things, Cheri touched the lives of many people that she barely knew. She will be truly missed by her husband, family and friends.

Visitation will be from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 21, 2011 at the Pagenkopf Funeral Home. Funeral services for Cheri will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 22, 2011 at the funeral home with a burial to follow at St. Paul's Cemetery in Genesee. Memorials are suggested to the Jefferson County Humane Society or to Leukemia Lymphoma Society.

Pagenkopf Funeral Home, 1165 E. Summit Ave., Oconomowoc, WI 53066, is serving the family. For details call 567-4457 or visit www.pagenkopf.com.

TOWN OF GENESEE

Cheryl Lynn 'Cheri' 'Cookie' Shook (nee Hanseder)

Feb. 12, 1961 - Dec. 18, 2011

Cheryl Lynn 'Cheri' 'Cookie' Shook (nee Hanseder), from the town of Genesee, passed away in the arms of her loving husband on Sunday, Dec. 18, 2011 at the age of 50.

Cheri was born Sunday, Feb. 12, 1961. Cheri is survived by her loving husband, Allen, of 22 years and who she has been together with for over 29 years. Cheri is also survived by her mother, Joan Hanseder of Waukesha; brother, Dan (Renee) Hanseder of Mukwonago; sisters, Debbie (Barry) Sayles of Genesee and Pattie Hanseder of Waukesha; her little brother, Tom Pluess of Eagle, in-laws, nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her father, Richard, and her grandparents.

Cheri was a 1979 graduate from Eisenhower High School, where she played varsity basketball. She then went on to Marquette University, where she earned her Bachelor of Science degree in civil engineering in 1985. She started working for the city of Waukesha while in college as co-op student. Later, she was employed by the city as a traffic engineer, achieving the title of registered professional engineer and P.T.O.E. (professional traffic operations engineer) and holding that position at the time of her passing.
