

F. W. Holsinger, Assessor For North Prairie, Dies

NORTH PRAIRIE — Floyd W. Holsinger, 62, village assessor for the last six years, died Saturday of incurable cancer at University hospitals in Madison. He had been a patient there for eight days.

He had been in ill health for several months, but didn't realize until recently that he had cancer of the bone. He was re-elected assessor Apr. 2, and learned only a few days later he had cancer.

Holsinger was employed in the purchasing department of the Waukesha Motor co. He gave up the position two weeks before his death. He lived at 113 N. Main st.

He is survived by his wife Bessie; three children, Mrs. Gordon Vicks and Frederick of Mukwonago, and William of Staten Island, N.Y. and a sister, Mrs. Lawrence Kowalski of Janesville.

Funeral services will be tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Smith's Funeral home in Palmyra, with the Rev. Frank Arge-lander of North Prairie Methodist church officiating.

Eastern Star services will be held by the William Perry chapter of Eagle, and graveside services will be conducted by the Rob Morris lodge No. 115, F and AM, Eagle. Burial will be in Hillside cemetery, Palmyra.

Friends may call at Smith's Funeral home after 3 p.m. today.

Holsinger was born Apr. 4, 1901 at Palmyra, the son of William and Viola Phillip Holsinger. He married Bessie De-Yoe June 6, 1922, in Waukau. He was a member of North Prairie Methodist church, and served as a trustee and member of the official board of the church. He was also a member of the Masonic lodge and Eastern Star at Eagle, the Royal Arch No. 60 at Whitewater and the White Shrine at Waukesha.

Holsinger operated a farm in Palmyra township before moving to North Prairie in 1944. He was Palmyra town clerk in his farming days. He was first elected as North Prairie village assessor six years ago.

Village Clerk Clarence Orth said a special meeting of the village board will be held Friday night, and an assessor will be appointed at that time. He said a replacement had not been selected yet today.

In Memory of

FLOYD W. HOLSINGER

Born

April 4, 1901

Palmyra, Wisconsin

Passed to His Reward

April 20, 1963

Madison, Wisconsin

Final Resting Place

Hillside Cemetery

Palmyra, Wisconsin