ELIZABETH COOMBE JOLLIFFE

On December 31st Elizabeth Coombe Jolliffe was found dead at the family home north of Palmyra. She arose to call her granddaughter and died suddenly before the granddaughter could answer the call. Mrs. Jolliffe was a daughter of Thomas and Thamsin Coombe who came to Palmyra in 1849 from Cornwall, England, when Mrs. Jolliffe was five years of age. Mrs. Jolliffe was married to John Jolliffe sixty-two years ago and during all of her married life resided on the same farm where she died. The Coombe family consisted of eleven children of whom Oliver B. Coombe, Henry Coombe, Mrs. Emma Waters and Mrs. Richard Baker, of White-water; Levi Coombe, of California, and Mrs. Rosepha Baker, of Eagle, survive. The funeral took place from Zion Wednesday, Rev. Neff, officiating, and interment was in the family lot at Zion.

Mrs. Jolliffe leaves surviving her, besides her sisters and brothers, one son, Richard J. Jolliffe, of Eagle, and one daughter, Mrs. Al Robinson, of White-water, Wisconsin. We all extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.
