

Mrs. Catherine Jones

Mrs. Catherine Jones died at the Municipal Hospital, Waukesha, Saturday, where she had been confined for seven weeks because of a fractured hip sustained in a fall at her home at Dousman, Nov. 16.

Catherine James was one of three daughters of the late William and Jane James, pioneer settlers of the town of Ottawa and was born July 8, 1853. Besides the three daughters there were two sons and by the death of Catherine, the last of the James children have passed to the great beyond.

On March 21, 1883 Catherine James was married to Robert P. Jones and lived at Durango, Colo., with her husband until he died about two years after their marriage. She then came back to her home in Ottawa, and on July 4, 1898 was married to David E. Jones and has since resided in Dousman. Mr. Jones died in March 1926.

Deceased is survived by one stepdaughter, Mrs. Oramel Hinkley of North Prairie, and nieces and nephews.

She was a member of Bethany church in the town of Genesee but has been interested in and a supporter of the Dousman Congregational church for many years.

She was a true Christian woman beloved by many, and delighted in serving her many friends. She lived a long, useful life, honored, trusted and loved. The people of Dousman ever held a warm corner in her heart. After the death of her husband, her step-daughter, Mrs. Hinkley, who she reared from a little child and loved as a mother would love her own, desired to have her live with her, but she decided to live here, in her own home near her many friends.

Funeral services were held at the Dousman Congregational church, Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock with burial in Jerusalem cemetery. Rev. G. A. Kaltenbach, Dousman and Rev. Hugh Owens, Waukesha, officiated. Floral tributes were beautiful and people from many places came to pay tribute to this worthy woman

7-8-1853 1-13-1932