

DANIEL KLINE

Source: Waukesha Freeman, The | Waukesha, Wisconsin | Thursday, October 14, 1915 | Page 4

At his home in Menomonee on Tuesday, Oct. 6, Daniel Kline, a Civil war veteran, passed away after an extended illness. He was born in Connorsville, Ind., July 27, 1840. In 1862 he enlisted at Indianapolis as a member of Co. D Seventeenth Veteran Reserve Corps and participated in a number of decisive actions with the Army of the Cumberland. After the war he came to Wisconsin, was married to Sarah Barndt of Granville and followed farming. About ten years ago he retired. His wife survives him. The funeral was held Saturday.