William Knight

After an illness of several months' duration, following operations in which he sought to regain his health, Wm. Knight passed away Tuesday morning at Wisconsin General Hospital at Madison. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Knight and was born at Woodstock, Ill., Sept. 15th, 1882, spending most of his boyhood days at Elkhorn. On October 10, 1905 he was united in marriage to Enola Burden, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burden and immediately went to house keeping at Burlington, where Mr. Knight was employed as butter-maker and where they remained for a year. They then came to the Oak Grove Dairy Farm where they were associated with Wm. Burden on the farm and which they have owned and operated for the past 38 years.

His farm, with its pure-bred cattle was one of the show places in the community. A good and kindly neighbor, he will be missed by all whom he has been associated with. <sup>Lew</sup> leaves surviving him his widow, Mrs. Kees, and one son, Harley, four grandchildren besides two sisters, Mrs. Pitts Marsh of Elkhorn and Mrs. Eatened Snyder of Darien. Funeral ~~by~~ passing will be held from the Mealy Funeral Chapel Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. Our sympathy in the loss of one we knew so well.
