

---

Private services are today for Grace E. Kuhl, 87, of Palmyra, who died Sunday at Fairhaven Nursing Home in Whitewater.

She and her husband, Glen, farmed in Little Prairie and retired in Palmyra. He preceded her in death. She was active in the community, serving lunch to senior citizens, and was a member of the Woman's Club in Palmyra.

Survivors include a son, David (Jill), of Little Prairie; three daughters, Betty (Pete) Robertson and Joyce (Darrel) Chapman, both of Little Prairie, and Audrey (Henry) Clark, of Troy Center; a daughter-in-law, Charlotte Kuhl; three brothers, Ray (Viola) Adams, of Palmyra, Glenn (Janice) Adams, of Little Prairie, and Harold (Georgene) Adams, of Fort Atkinson; 12 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

The services will be at Mealy's Funeral Home, 103 Eagle St., Eagle. The Rev. Ann Luzader will officiate. Cremation will be at Wisconsin Memorial Park in Brookfield, and burial of the ashes at Hillside Cemetery in Palmyra.