Edwin W. Parsons, who resided a mile east of the village of Eagle, was found drowned in a little pond of water near the village last Friday morning. He had been shearing sheep, received his pay, and had become intoxicated. He started for his home about 8 p.m. and was found dead the next morning within twenty rods of his house. A coroner's jury brought in a verdict of drowning while under the influence of liquor. Mr. Parsons was 55 years old and was a veteran of the civil war. He had recently been granted a pension. Funeral services were held at the residence Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Eagle Picket Post. Deceased is survived by a widow and eight children.
