

JOHN B SKIDMORE

Waukesha Freeman, Saturday, June 30, 1945 | Page 1

John B. Skidmore, 60, dies at Eagle Today

John Bradley Skidmore, 60, died unexpectedly at his home in Eagle Saturday morning. Surviving him are two daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Tellier and Mrs. Emelia Emmer and two sons, Harrison and Kenneth in the navy.

No funeral arrangements have been made as yet, but will be announced by the Mealy funeral home later.

Waukesha Freeman, The | Waukesha, Wisconsin | Saturday, July 07, 1945 | Page 3

EAGLE—John Skidmore died at his home in the village on Friday morning. It came as shock to the family and community as Mr. Skidmore had not been sick previously.

He was born in Eagle on April 7, 1885 and lived his life with the exception of a few years in Minnesota, in and around Eagle. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church on Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. Gordon Amphlett officiating with burial in Oak Ridge cemetery. He leaves his wife and four children Emily Emmers, Eagle; Mrs. Evelyn Tellier, Glendale, California; Harrison J., SK 1/c U.S.N., Bremerton, Washington; and Kenneth, C.S. 2/c U.S.N.R. Memphis, Tenn.