

MARY ELLEN STEINHOFF

Source: Waukesha Freeman, Wednesday, May 02, 1945, Page 3 Eagle

Saturday morning Mr. and Mrs. Anton Steinhoff, received word of the serious illness of their daughter, Mary Ellen who was teaching in Freeport, I11. They left immediately and she was removed to the hospital and died Friday evening after such a short illness. Mary Ellen was born at Eagle on Dec. 11, 1921, she attended the rural school near her home. She Graduated from Palmyra high school as valdectorian in 1939. She then attended Teachers college at Whitewater, graduating in 1944. She then took a position at Freeport and was beloved by pupils, teachers and many friends. She was buried from St. Theresa's church on Tuesday morning.

A large number of friends and relatives from a distance attended the funeral, Msgr. Couley, pastor of St. Mary's church, Freeport accompanied by Rev. Driscoll of Dunrand were in attendance. Mrs. Cecelia Host, wife of Mr. Clem Host died Saturday at Elkhorn hospital after a short illness. Mr. and Mrs. Host have been residents at Eagle Lake for a number of years. Funeral services were held at St. Thomas Aquinas church Wednesday at 9 a.m. with burial at Calvary cemetery. She leaves her husband, five daughters, Mrs. Margaret Hughes, Mrs. Geraldme Steer, Mrs. Mary Wickert, Mrs. Robert Druecker and Miss Jane Host. Two sons, F.C. 3/c., John R. Host, Air Cadet Paul W. Host; three sisters and a brother. Several from Eagle attended the funeral in Milwaukee.