Death of a Beloved Woman

Mrs. Frances M. Waltermire Passed Away at Oshkosh

Eagle, Nov. 8. The remains of Mrs. Frances Mead Waltermire were brought here from Oshkosh Monday afternoon, for burial in Oak Ridge cemetery. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church by Rev. Mr. Hayward of Milwaukee. Mr. and Mrs. Waltermire removed from here over a decade ago after having lived in the village the major portion of their lives and had many old friends and neighbors, who feel a sincere sympathy for the surviving husband and children, Miss Ida and Henry S. of Milwaukee and Mrs. S. K. Youmans of Oshkosh.

Mrs. Waltermire was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., Oct. 22, 1842, coming to the town of Eagle with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Mead, and was married to Henry W. Waltermire in 1861. They moved from here to Milwaukee, then to Pewaukee and later to Oshkosh, where she died. She was a charter member of the Baptist church established here in the seventies and has been a sincere, earnest worker in her faith. Her cordial, sunny greeting and loyal affection made her a welcome guest in the seventies and has been a sincere earnest worker in her faith. Her cordial, sunny greeting and loyal affection made her a welcome guest in many homes and it was almost with the feeling that they had come to give personal greeting to an old friend that brought the home people and friends from away around her at the last rites at church and cemetery Monday afternoon.
