

Died at his father's home in Eagle, on Monday, September 19, 1892, John Wilton, aged 45 years. The deceased was well known by all the residents of Eagle, and was noted for his eccentricities, and, although with his natural talents as an artist and painter of no mean order, his choice of life was that of a nomad. Self-willed in all his actions, he refused the many attractions of a home and its comforts for a roaming life. His demise was peaceful, and in the presence of his friends and relatives. The funeral services will be held at the residence of his father on Wednesday, September 21, at 2 o'clock, P. M.
