

Obitu - Loibl, Maximilian
4-27-1908

Maximilian Loibl Dead

On Monday, April 27, occurred the death of Maximilian Loibl at his home in Willow Island, Neb., at an advanced age. Mr. Loibl was born in Bavaria, Germany, and was the youngest of the family of six boys and two girls, of whom four boys came to America, Jacob locating in Cumberland, Md., John and Michael in Utica, New York, and Wolfgang in Eagle. George and Joseph and the two sisters, Katherine and Mary, remained in the fatherland and have gone to their reward with the exception of the sister, Katherine. Mr. Loibl was educated in his native land and served in the king's army. He was married and came to Eagle, Wis., where he followed the business of digging wells. Later he moved to Trempeleau county, Wis., and thence to Nebraska, where he died. His wife preceded him in death about two years ago. He leaves a family of six boys and two girls. Mr. Loibl accumulated a comfortable income for himself in his old age and his children are comfortably provided for. Besides his immediate family he leaves many near relatives, and was related to the editor as uncle.

Retyped from the Eagle Quill article of May 1, 1908.

Eagle Quill
WINDSOR, NEB. 1, 1908

Max Loibl

MAXIMILIAN LOIBL DEAD
The death of Maximilian Loibl, at his home in Willow Island, Neb., at an advanced age. Mr. Loibl was born in Bavaria, Germany, and was the youngest of the family of six boys and two girls, of whom four boys came to America, Jacob locating in Cumberland, Md., John and Michael in Utica, New York, and Wolfgang in Eagle. George and Joseph and the two sisters, Katherine and Mary, remained in the fatherland and have gone to their reward with the exception of the sister, Katherine. Mr. Loibl was educated in his native land and served in the king's army. He was married and came to Eagle, Wis., where he followed the business of digging wells. Later he moved to Trempeleau county, Wis., and thence to Nebraska, where he died. His wife preceded him in death about two years ago. He leaves a family of six boys and two girls. Mr. Loibl accumulated a comfortable income for himself in his old age and his children are comfortably provided for. Besides his immediate family he leaves many near relatives, and was related to the editor as uncle.