

Obit. Lucht, Arnold R.

Sept. 29, 1924

March 29, 1991

Funeral services will be held at the Hebron United Methodist Church at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 2, with the Rev. Julie Bunt officiating. Burial will take place in Hebron Cemetery.

Friends may call at the church on Saturday, from 11 a.m. until the time of services.

The Nitardy Funeral Home of Fort Atkinson is assisting the family.

Arnold Lucht

HEBRON — Arnold Robert Lucht, 74, of Hebron, died on Wednesday, Dec. 30, 1998, at his home.

Born in Concord on Sept. 29, 1924, to Ben and Norma (Reich) Lucht, he married Mary J. Kehoe on May 18, 1946. She died on March 29, 1991.

He served in the U.S. Air Force during World War II.

Mr. Lucht was a dairy farmer in the Hebron area.

He was a member of the Farm Bureau, Hebron United Methodist Church, Tri-State Breeders Cooperative and Jefferson County Holstein Breeders Association, and was a delegate to the Wisconsin Dairies and a dairy leader for 4-H.

Surviving are four daughters, Shirley (John) Wagi, Karen (Roy) Hetts and Sharon (Jack) Haupt, all of Fort Atkinson, and Sandra (Dennis) Witek of Janesville; seven grandchildren, Jacki (Luke) Foelker, Brenda (Abe) Guyette, Alex and Andrew Witek, Michael and Alison Hetts and Jenny Haupt; and three great-grandchildren.

Also, five brothers, Melvin of Stonebank, John (Darlene) and Russell (Eddie), both of Crivitz, Donald (Carole) of Jefferson, and Ray (Jean) of Green Bay; and three sisters, Eunice (Gerald) Sinnamon of Massachusetts, Darlene (Donald) Sudbrink of Texas and Betty (Ed) Schutten of Helenville.

He was also predeceased by his parents and two brothers, Bernard and Kenneth.
