MUKWONAGO

John A. Lueck

Jan. 25, 1913 - Oct. 25, 2004

John A. Lueck, 91, died Monday, Oct. 25, 2004, at Lancaster Hospital while on his way to a hunting trip in Montana. He was born Jan. 25, 1913, in Mukwonago, to Herman and Emma (nee Hackbarth) Lueck.

He had farmed in the town of Eagle and also was a butcher. He enjoyed his trips to Montana to hunt big game. He was a member of the First Congregational Church in Mukwonago and was an F&AM Mason of Lodge No. 68 in Palmyra.

He is survived by his wife, Bernice (nee Hornbeck), whom he married Jan. 30, 1932, in Waukegan, Ill. He is further survived by his children, Jack Lueck of Waukesha and Joyce (Jerry) Babcock of Racine; three grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; a half-brother, Raymond (Marion) Lueck of Mukwonago; a half-sister, Louise Grimes of Littlerock, Ark.; and nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

He is preceded in death by his sisters, Margaret and Lillie, and half-sister, Meta.

Funeral services will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 28, at Mealy's Funeral Home, 103 Eagle St., Eagle, followed by a Masonic service. Visitation will held from 4 p.m. until time of services. The Rev. Kathy Rust will officiate with burial at 11 a.m. Friday, Oct. 29, at Hillside Cemetery in Palmyra.

If desired, memorials to First Congregational Church of Mukwonago are appreciated.

Mealy's Funeral Home, 594-2442, is serving the family.
