

Obit-Sasso Louis
9/18/1948

THE EAGLE QUILL.

9/25/1948

LOUIS SASSO

The funeral of Louis Sasso, who passed away Thursday morning was held from St. Theresa's Catholic church Saturday morning. Rev. Father Melaley of the Novitiate at East Troy conducting the services. Mr. Sasso was born at Marblehead in 1899 and his marriage to Francis Novella of Waukesha took place at St. Josephs church at Waukesha April 23, 1921. In March, 1925 they moved to Eagle, where they purchased the Pall Mall, which they operated and which later was destroyed by fire and which they rebuilt the following year. They later purchased the Diamond Hotel, which they rebuilt and have operated since.

Mr. Sasso had many, many friends as was evidenced by the large crowd, who visited the home and attended the funeral. The pall bearers were all nephews of the deceased. The honorary pall bearers were Dean Jones, F. Jakken, Geo. Ridgeman, H. Edmonds, Ed. Whettam, Morris Cummings, Chet Rohloff, Jos. Boland, Ed Emmer, A. H. Gale.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful and over 100 spiritual bouquets were presented for the repose of his soul. Burial was in St. Theresa's Oak Knoll Cemetery. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife Francis and two children, Mary and Mike, both at home, one sister of Milwaukee. We ~~speak~~ with many friends in extending our sincere sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Louis Sasso

Our little village was saddened today, Thursday, when came the passing of Louis Sasso, Proprietor and owner of Pall Mall, which he has conducted here for many years. Although Mr. Sasso had returned from Madison hospital only last Thursday where he had been for treatment for several weeks, no one realized the end would come so soon. Only Wednesday he had been up and about greeting his friends in his usual jovial manner, it is not be wondered at, that the news of his passing came with all force of a surprise to everyone. He leaves to mourn him, his wife, Frances, a daughter Mary, and son Michael besides many other relatives. The funeral will probably be held Saturday a.m. from St. Theresa's church, with burial in Oak Knoll cemetery. A more complete notice will appear in next week's issue.