

Hugo Schneider, who accidentally drowned at Beloit. Sunday, June 15th, was a grandson of Wendelin Schneider, former resident of Eagle. He was born at Zurich, Switzerland, Dec. 6, 1907, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Schneider. His father died twelve years ago. He came to America eight years ago and made his home here with his grand parents, who now reside at Beloit. He went swimming with three boys, Robert Gehri, aged 13, and the Madro brothers, aged 17 and 19 years, who were neighbors. He made a dive into Black creek, came up once only. The funeral took place from the home of his grandparents, with services at St. Judes' church, interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. John Gehri, of North Prairie, attended the funeral. Hugo was a bright young man with a promising future, of a sunny disposition and highly respected by all. He leaves besides his mother and grandparents, Mrs. John Gehri, Mrs. E. E. Haywood and Arthur Schneider, relatives, who have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.
