

Obit-Silvernail, Annie
1883- 1943

THE EAGLE QUILL.

9/3/1943

Mrs. Annie Silvernail

Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Silvernail were held Tuesday at 2 P. M. at Mealy Chapel in Eagle. The Rev. Fred Turner of Waukesha officiating. Honorary pallbearers (all relatives of deceased) were as follows Messers-Cecil Srobbe, Merwyn Stead, George Sherman, Dean Jones, Earl Wilson and Vinton Sherman. The well loved songs: "Old Rugged Cross," and "He Knows" were all so beautifully sung by Dean Jones and sister, Mrs. C. Rhodes.

Many friends, neighbors, relatives, were present to bid their final farewell to one well loved and respected.

Mrs. Silvernail was born in School Section town of Mukwonago in 1883. She was a daughter of Henry and Mary Smart, Stead: pioneer family of Eagle.

She was married to Jay Danforth Silvernail 1879. Mr. Silvernail preceded her in death in 1940.

Mr. and Mrs. Silvernail were parents of five children. Aurabel who died in infancy, Mae (Mrs. Henry Smart), who died in 1936 and Arthur now residing in Whitewater, Guy of Genesee, Beulah (Mrs. C. G. Bayer) of Waukesha.

Besides her immediate family, a sister, Mrs. Sylvia Sherman and a brother, Jay U. Stead of Eagle and two grandsons, James Smart of Waukesha and Cpl. Jack Silvernail of Fredericks Oklahoma are left to mourn the death of a very kind sister and "grandma."

Mrs. Silvernail lived the greater part of her life in Eagle until the death of Mr. Silvernail. She then occupied an apartment in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bayer at Waukesha until her death on August 28th. Interment was at Oak Ridge Cemetery.

Mrs. Silvernail was a lovable gentle character. She loved her home and found her happiness in all people and associations connected with it. To us that knew her well the memory of her calm, patient manner, her abiding faith that all things were for the best, will enable us to better carry on until we too receive our final Summons "Home."
