

SMART, RICHARD
SEPT. 13, 1822
JULY 17, 1913

OBITUARY.

Again the death angel has come in our midst and taken from us another of God's chosen followers.

Richard Smart passed away to his home beyond on Sunday, July 17th, at 12:45 a. m.

He has been a sufferer from apoplexy the past three weeks, not able to talk and losing the use of his right limbs.

He was born at Yorkshire, England, September 13, 1822, being 81 years, 10 months and 2 days of age. He came to this country when but 12 years old. Was married to Emma Sugden in 1842, one child, Thomas Smart of Fountain, being born to this union. In 1849 he married Jane Smart, who still survives him.

In 1852 he emigrated to California by the overland route, remaining there five years, returning in '57 to Waukesha county, Wis., remaining there until 1866, thence removing with his family to New Lisbon, remaining there but a short time, coming to the Town of Glendale in 1871, where he has since resided.

Some eight years ago he made a profession of faith in Christ as a personal savior and united with the Baptist church during the pastorate of Rev. James Blake, and was a faithful member till death.

The funeral took place Tuesday at 10 o'clock a. m. from the Baptist church, Rev. Staley officiating, the interment being in the Glendale cemetery.

Mr. Smart's memory will linger long with a host of friends, both old and young, who remember him as a trusty friend.

He leaves a wife, three daughters, Mrs. Addie Stickles, Sioux City, Iowa, Mrs. Elizabeth Mist and Mrs. Rena Lumsden of this place, two sons, Thomas Smart of Fountain and Richard Smart of this place, nineteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren to mourn his loss. *
