ANGELINE E. STUTE

Mrs. Angeline Elenor Stute, age 85, of Troy Center, died Friday, January 5, 1996 at the Lakeland Nursing Home in Elkhorn.

She was born March 3, 1910 in Mukwonago to parents Francis and Julia (Vosburg) Mich. She married Anton F. Stute on June 4, 1938 and together they farmed between Eagle and Palmyra moving to the Troy Center farm in 1943. Anton passed away October 7, 1983.

She was a very active member of St. Peter's Catholic Church in East Troy, was very active with Music Mothers, the East Troy Senior Citizens, St. Vincent de Paul Society, various church groups and served on the East Troy Library Board of Directors for a time. She is best remembered for her blithe spirit and helpful ways.

Angeline is survived by one son, David (Peg Rasch) Stute of Madison; three daughters: Mary Lawrence of Darien, Nora (Robert) Fuller of Eau Claire, and Suzanne (Jonathan) Kurtis of Northampton, Massachusetts; nine grandchildren; two sisters: Camilla Congdon of Palmyra and Loretta (Emil) Stradinger of Whitewater; one brother, Woodrow "Bud" (Maureen) Mich of Minoqua and Mesa, Arizona; nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by one sister, Madalyn Peters, and one brother, Frank Mich.

A Funeral Mass was held at 11 a.m. Monday, January 8, at St. Peter's Catholic Church, East Troy. Father Kenneth Derfus officiated.

Angeline loved to read, pursue her various collections and restoring furniture with her husband, Anton.

Memorials appreciated to the church or to the Lakeland Nursing Home Van Fund.
