Life Goes On

*The sun will rise tomorrow
into a cloudless sky.*

*The earth will blow
A lofty breeze,*

*The fields let forth a sigh;
And life will pay no mind to all the hurt you feel,
but slowly pass
as if to say,*

This pain just can't be real.

*For in this world of happiness,
There is no place for sorrow.*

*Life goes on,
And I have learned
The sun will rise tomorrow.*
