

Tuohy, Agnes, E.
Apr. 30, 1899 - June 11, 1920

MISS TUOHY DIES AT HOME IN EAGLE

Once more the angel of death knocked at the door of our community and took from us one of our dearly loved ones. Agnes Ellen Tuohy was born April 30th, 1899, at the home on Eagle Lake now known as Eagle Springs hotel. Here she grew to happy girlhood, surrounded by her many friends and schoolmates. In her childhood she attended the Eagleville district school, and later graduated from the Mukwonago High school. Her gentleness of manner and sweetness of disposition endeared her to the hearts of all who knew her. Her many acts of thoughtfulness and kindness to her schoolmates during her illness will long be remembered.

Although it was known that her short illness was most serious, her death came as a distinct shock to her many friends who were hoping and trusting that Agnes would recover. Monday morning just as the dawn was breaking and the birds caroling their morning lay, the Death Angel with noiseless tread, opened life's flower encircled door, and her gentle spirit flitted through into the great beyond, there to await the coming of her loved ones

"It singeth low in every heart,
We hear it each and all,
The song of those who answer not
However we may call.

"They throng the silence of the breast,
We see them as of yore,
The kind, the true, the brave, the sweet,
Who walk with us no more."

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Tuohy, brothers, Raymond J., and William Brian, and sister, Mary, who survive her, have the sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral took place from the family home Thursday morning to St. Theresa church, Eagle, of which the family are members. Rev. Fr. Salbreiter of Mukwonago officiating. Interment in the family lot in the new church cemetery. There was an unusually large attendance, evidence of the friendship and esteem in which the deceased was held in the community.

June 11, 1920