

Von Rueden, Anton <sup>Obiti</sup>

ANTON VON RUEDEN ✓

On Monday morning in Saint Theresa's Church a Requiem Mass was read by Father George Wollett for the repose of the Soul of Anthony Von Rueden, who died in his sleep at Pengilly, Minnesota.

Anthony Von Rueden or Tony Von Rueden as he was more familiarly known, was the last living member of the Bernard and Mary Von Rueden family, pioneers in this community.

It was his wish to be buried in the cemetery with the other members of his family. Lawrence Baldus, his Cousin, who had last visited him with his wife and child in June, went to Minnesota to accompany the body to Eagle.

Held in high esteem in his community in Minnesota, his death is also mourned by the immediate members of his family group here. ✓
