IVA BIGELOW WEAVER HONORED IN TRIBUTE

The recent death of Iva Bigelow Weaver has been keenly and widely felt in Milwaukee as a loss to the city's music. The MacDowell club, through its president, Miss Marie Strasen, has contributed this tribute to the memory of Mrs. Weaver:

Milwaukee music lovers are mourning the passing of Mrs. Iva Bigelow Weaver, one who for many years had an important part in the training of singers in Milwaukee and who enjoyed the love and respect of a host of friends among the musical profession.

We of the MacDowell club have lost one of our charter members. Mrs. Weaver was one of those who, many years ago, realized the great possibilities of furthering musical culture in our community through this club and who gave much of her time and wonderful musical gifts in carrying on the work of this organization. She was closely affiliated with us not only as a singer, but served as a member of the board of directors for many years, during which time she held office as president, vice-president, chairman of press committee and served the club in many other ways.

With Mrs. Weaver's students and many friends, the members of the MacDowell club will feel her loss keenly and her memory will awaken in their hearts a feeling of deep gratitude for her unselfish and loyal services in the interest of music in Milwaukee.—Milwaukee Journal.

Mrs. Weaver was a former resident of Palmyra and was the daughter of the late Mrs. A. J. Thorne, of this vil-
