

Weinfurt, William J.
Aug. 9, 1909 - Jan. 16, 1994

William Weinfurt

Electrical engineer

Services will be Thursday for William J. Weinfurt of Dousman, formerly of Elm Grove, who died Sunday at Waukesha Memorial Hospital. He was 85.

Weinfurt was a resident of Dousman since 1980. He was employed as an electrical engineer at McGraw Edison and was a member of St. Bruno's Catholic Church in Dousman.

Survivors include his wife, Grace of Dousman; three sons, Richard (Donna) of Eagle, and Phillip (Mary) and Gregory (Janice), both of Brookfield; one sister, Loretto Weinfurt of Waukesha; 10 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be from 1 p.m. until services at 3 p.m. Thursday at St. Bruno's Catholic Church, 266 W. Ottawa Ave., Dousman. Father John Hanley will officiate.

William J. Weinfurt

DOUSMAN — William J. Weinfurt, age 85, died Sunday, Jan. 16, 1994, at Waukesha Memorial Hospital. He was born Aug. 9, 1909, in Chicago, Ill., to Otto and Mary Kennedy Weinfurt.

He married Grace Sullivan in 1936. He lived in Elm Grove before moving to Dousman in 1980. He was employed as an electrical engineer for McGraw Edison and was a member of St. Bruno's Catholic Church in Dousman.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Grace; sons, Richard (Donna) of Eagle, Phillip (Mary) of Brookfield and Gregory (Janice) of Brookfield. He is further survived by sister, Loretto Weinfurt of Waukesha, 10 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

Funeral services will be Thursday, Jan. 20, at 3 p.m. at St. Bruno's Catholic Church, Dousman, with the Rev. John Hanley officiating. Visitation will be from 1 to 3 p.m. Thursday at the church. Burial will be at St. Mary's Cemetery in Elm Grove. Memorials are suggested to the American Diabetes Association or St. Bruno's Catholic Church.

Pagenkopf Funeral Home, Oconomowoc, 567-4457, is serving the family.

(The Freeman — Jan. 18, 1994)