

Obit.

Kelch, Laura
Aug. 6

B. 1882

D. Aug 4, 1958

Married: William Markham Aug 1, 1899

5 children

Married: Charles Kelch 1930's

Kelch Bites

EAGLE — Funeral services were held today at Mealy funeral home for Mrs. Laura Kelch who died Monday after a long illness.

Included among her survivors are five sisters, the Mmes. Flora Sorenson, Linnie Blott, Elva Winchell and Mable Elliott, all of Waukesha and Edna Berge, Milwaukee.

MRS. LAURA KELCH

Mrs. Laura Kelch, 75, of Rt. 1, Eagle, passed away Monday, August 4th at Waukesha County Hospital.

Mrs. Kelch is survived by three sons, Willard Markham of Waukesha, Alfred Markham of Whitewater and Laurel Markham of Eagle, one daughter, Mrs. Alvin Halgerson of Whitewater; five sisters, Mrs. Flora Sorensen, Mrs. Malinda Blott, Mrs. Elva Winchell, Mrs. Mable Elliott of Waukesha, and Mrs. Edna Berge, of Milwaukee; two brothers, Arthur and Roy Hotelling of Waukesha; nine grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

She was a member of the Eagle American Legion Auxiliary and the Nazarene Church of Waukesha.

Funeral services were held Wed., Aug. 6th at 7:30 p.m. at Mealy's Funeral Home at Eagle, with burial in Ottawa Cemetery. The Rev. Dale Sidle, Waukesha officiating.

The funeral held for Laura Kelch of Eagle week, marks the demise one who was born and grew up here at Prospect Hill.

Little Laura Hotelling lived at one time in an old house that stood east of Bay Sprengel's on the east side of the Hill. The Steve Hotelling family, besides Laura, including Linnie, Flora, Elva, Nora, Edna, Dolly, Mabel, Roy, Art, and Jerome.

A Civil war veteran, their father at one time drove the stage coach in this vicinity. His descendants have built